It's celebrated for an innovative approach to hospitality and currently boasts an extensive line-up of much-anticipated See and Be Seen events, including the prestige Kata Rocks Superyacht Rendezvous during the second week of December. Also in the upcoming season of events are:

COLLECTIVE SERIES

With more Collective Series events planned for winter, this remains the most highly-anticipated and must-attend event in Phuket, having created its own fresh identity that celebrates outstanding food, handcrafted cocktails and luxury lifestyle.

CULINARY CINEMA

Culinary Cinema Season 3 returns in time for Halloween, with a fun fright night of entertainment. It all starts on 3 November then continues on the last Friday of each month until May 2018. A social media vote decides which Halloween film gets marquee status on the first evening, followed by cinematic classics Julie & Julie, Ocean's Eleven, Eat Pray Love, Braveheart, Avatar, Monsters Inc.

Culinary Cinema presents an original way to interpret film using the senses of aroma, texture and taste. Bespoke tasting menus - that represent an emotion, environment, turn-of-phrase or overall feeling on screen - consistently attract sold-out audiences.

KATA ROCKS' THIRD ANNIVERSARY

For its third anniversary, Kata Rocks is pulling out all the stops on Saturday 2 December with a Louis Roederer Champagne Brunch Anniversary Pool Party. The resort's DJ-fuelled brunches are legendary for their stylish party atmospheres, and this year's event is centred around Kata Rocks' gorgeous 35-metre infinity swimming pool. Jose Padilla, Ibiza's Godfather of Chill, headlined Kata Rocks' last two anniversary events, with this third event expected to be bigger and better.

FESTIVE SEASON 2017

During the Festive Season, 2017 Kata Rocks invites everyone to celebrate the magic of the season with a line-up of festive feasts and countdown parties to complement this most wonderful time of the year. Its holiday event calendar begins with a Christmas Eve Champagne Brunch followed by the finest in family-friendly dining on Christmas Day, then shifts into full party mode for a jazzy dance-the-night-way Hollywood-themed New Year's Eve Night Party.
