Kata Rocks is pleased to offer diverse yachting experiences this festive season. Our own Kata Rocks' Rib is available for charter, which is ideal for small groups to visit local islands and snorkel along the coral reefs around Phuket.

Or book an exclusive yacht charter with Kata Rocks and explore Phuket and Phang Nga Bay's many pristine, remote islands with deserted white sand beaches to ensure a memorable day of leisure and relaxation.

Please contact your Rock Star for more information or reservations.

DINING ON THE ROCKS

Our 'Dining on the Rocks' experience is the pinnacle in romantic oceanfront destination dining, offering the ultimate 'Festive Season' treat. A personal table set up right on the shoreline, with the seductive sound of waves breaking on the rocks and scenic Koh Pu in the background, makes for an enchanted evening.

Kata Rocks' Executive Chef Laia Pons and her talented team excel in creating bespoke menus for any special occasion; ensuring that 'Dining on the Rocks' is Phuket's most exceptional epicurean experience.

Other additions include launching Thai fire lanterns for good luck, sunset champagne celebrations with delicious tapas or your very own firework display. For more information or reservations, please contact dining@katarocks.com or for in house guests, please contact your Rock Star.

CULTURAL DAY TRIPS & EXCURSIONS

Phuket is known for its magnificent white sand beaches and shimmering azure waters of the Andaman sea, but it also surprises with an incredibly diverse number of recreational attractions for you to discover. Please contact your Rock Star for more information or reservations.

ETHICAL ELEPHANT SANCTUARIES

Kata Rocks recommends two ethical elephant sanctuaries that use positive training methods and allow visitors to feed and view elephants in their natural habitat. Both Elephant Jungle Sanctuary Phuket and Phuket Elephant Sanctuary allow visitors to feed, walk with, and observe beautiful rescued elephants as they would in the wild.

PHUKET ART VILLAGE

Phuket Art Village in Rawai is an eclectic live-work community of studios, galleries and specialty shops housed in colourful reclaimed wooden cottages. Shadow puppet shows at Come Peng Studio are held the first Saturday of each month, from 5:30 to 11pm, featuring the performance art of southern Thailand. Curious visitors seeking authenticity and local art are usually surprised and delighted during each visit.

FLYING HANUMAN ZIPLINE

Flying Hanuman is a zipline eco-adventure like no other on Phuket. With 28 platforms and 15 ziplines, it shows how the island's beauty extends beyond the sea, sun and sand that it is famous for. The hillsides of Flying Hanuman come alive and overflow with thick forest, making this is a great place for exploration and outdoor activities.

KOH KAEW YAI - BUDDHA'S FIRST ISLAND FOOTPRINT

Just off Cape Promthep lies Koh Kaew Yai, where legend has it that the Buddha took his first step on Thai soil. Home to a small community of monks, there are also several small Buddhist shires and a large Buddha statue and other attractions to explore.

PARASAIL TO NAI HARN BEACH

It starts from the stunning viewpoint above Ya Nui Beach, where parasail thrill seekers take off and ride draft currents that push them towards nearby Nai Harn. Parasail classes are available from operators at viewpoint when wind conditions are favourable.
