INFINITE LUXURY APPOINTS NEW MARKETING DIRECTOR TO DEFINE ULTRA-LUXURY AT KATA ROCKS

(Hong Kong – 4 July, 2016) – Phuket lifestyle design company Infinite Luxury is pleased to announce the appointment of Michael Nurbatlian as Director of Marketing. Nurbatlian joins Infinite Luxury with more than eight years of experience in the luxury hospitality industry, bringing with him a wealth of marketing and e-commerce experience.

Michael's previous experience includes working in luxury properties such as InterContinental Hotels & Resorts and Phuket designer resort Indigo Pearl. He was most recently at Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok for four years and held the leadership position of Director of Digital Marketing, responsible for all brand, marketing and digital strategies.

Richard Pope CEO of Infinite Luxury says, "We are extremely pleased to have Michael join us, Michael is a natural born entrepreneur who has successfully built his unique career and experience within the travel, luxury and hospitality industries."

With an M.B.A. in Marketing & Innovation from the prestigious Glion Institute of Higher Education in Switzerland, he now heads Infinite Luxury's marketing, branding, public relations, advertising, communications and digital ecosystem.

Commenting on his new role, Michael says: "This is a truly fantastic opportunity to work with an innovative luxury brand such as Infinite Luxury. I look forward to joining this pioneering team and building on new successes as we expand regionally by strengthening the online guest experience and connecting with new clients by further developing the Kata Rocks brand and bring the Infinite Luxury brand to life."

Michael will be based at Infinite Luxury headquarters in Phuket, Thailand and will report to CEO Richard Pope.

Kata Rocks in Phuket, Thailand was opened in 2014 by lifestyle design company Infinite Luxury, the idyllic resort & residence has over 34 pool villas overlooking the paradise coast.
