KATA ROCKS WINS CONDÉ NAST TRAVELER 2016 READER'S CHOICE AWARDS

Consistently recognised as one of Asia's top award-winning luxury resorts, Kata Rocks is delighted to add to its lengthy list of accolades the honour of being named one of the 25 best hotels in South East Asia by the prestigious Conde Nast Readers' 2016 Choice Awards last night.

This exciting and highly coveted award brings the total to over 40 international property and hospitality awards for the luxury boutique resort. Michael Nurbatlian, Marketing Director for Infinite Luxury, the development and management brand behind Kata Rocks, outlined: 'We are thrilled to be recognised by this prestigious award by Conde Nast Traveler. Kata Rocks is a unique property and we will continue to offer outstanding, luxury experiences in South East Asia'.

The 29th annual awards ranked the best hotels, resorts, cities, islands, airlines, and cruise lines in the world. The Readers Choice Awards appear in the November print issue of Condé Nast Traveler and are the longest-running and most esteemed recognition of excellence in the travel industry. Scot Toon, General Manager of Kata Rocks said: 'We truly believe Kata Rocks is one of the best hotels in Asia and this notable award showcases our unparalleled Rock Star service within the industry'.

Sleek and sophisticated, offering a minimalist vibe with contemporary apartment sized suites Kata Rocks is unlike anything else on the island. With extraordinary sweeping views, the hotel is located near Kata, a clean-cut resort town, popular with the yachting crowd, on the south west coast of Phuket. With 34 one, two, three and four-bedroom Sky Villa's stacked across the hillside – these are big, bright and beautiful, and come with the most amazing pools. The floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors open onto private infinity pools, each of which is a minimum of seven-meters long.
