

The Spirit of Kata Rocks – ultra-small batch gin hand-crafted in Phuket

Limited-edition new gin brand launched in Phuket by glamorous Kata Rocks luxury resort

March 31st, 2017

Known for hosting glamorous events, stylish parties and welcoming a sophisticated crowd all year long; trend-setting Kata Rocks resort recently launched its distinctive limited-edition brand of locally distilled gin during the highly coveted Kata Rocks Superyacht Rendezvous. 'The Spirit of Kata Rocks', is a hand-crafted ultra-small batch gin, designed to appeal to both lifetime gin connoisseurs and a new generation of gin enthusiasts which has grown rapidly in recent years.

Scot Toon, General Manager, Kata Rocks said only the highest quality ingredients are used in the development and production of The Spirit of Kata Rocks. "We took enormous care in creating this gin. The Spirit of Kata Rocks is hand-crafted in ultra-small batches, distilled to produce unusual and unique flavours. We believe there is a huge demand for high-quality gin, both on Phuket and around Thailand. It all starts with a healthy infusion of Peruvian juniper berries and Angelica wild ginseng that is then finished with a bold flourish of local Thai herbs and exceptional Asian spices."

Other key ingredients include fresh lemon grass, fresh lemon peel, coriander seed, fresh bergamot leaf, Sichuan pepper, fresh green pepper, green cardamom, white mugwort, fresh pomelo peel, Thai basil and high mountain oolong tea among others.

Recently the recipient of double Gold CSWA spirit industry awards – 'Spirit of Kata Rocks', is available to try at the Bar at Kata Rocks – or to purchase the limited edition bottles, priced at THB 1,600 + 7.7% vat, excluding shipping.

(Images credit Kata Rocks)