KATA ROCKS RESORT – PHUKET THAILAND

Kata Rocks is a beautiful resort on the Island of Phuket in Thailand. It is often featured in travel magazines and blogs for its gorgeous facilities and jaw-dropping panoramic views. I felt like we were on an island in the French Polynesia rather than Southeast Asia. If you're looking to go to a place that offers an assortment of experiences, I would highly recommend Phuket Thailand.

If you're looking for a destination that offers an assortment of experiences, I would highly recommend Phuket Thailand. There are luxurious resorts like Kata, but also street markets, local cultural eats, and lots of adventure to be had.

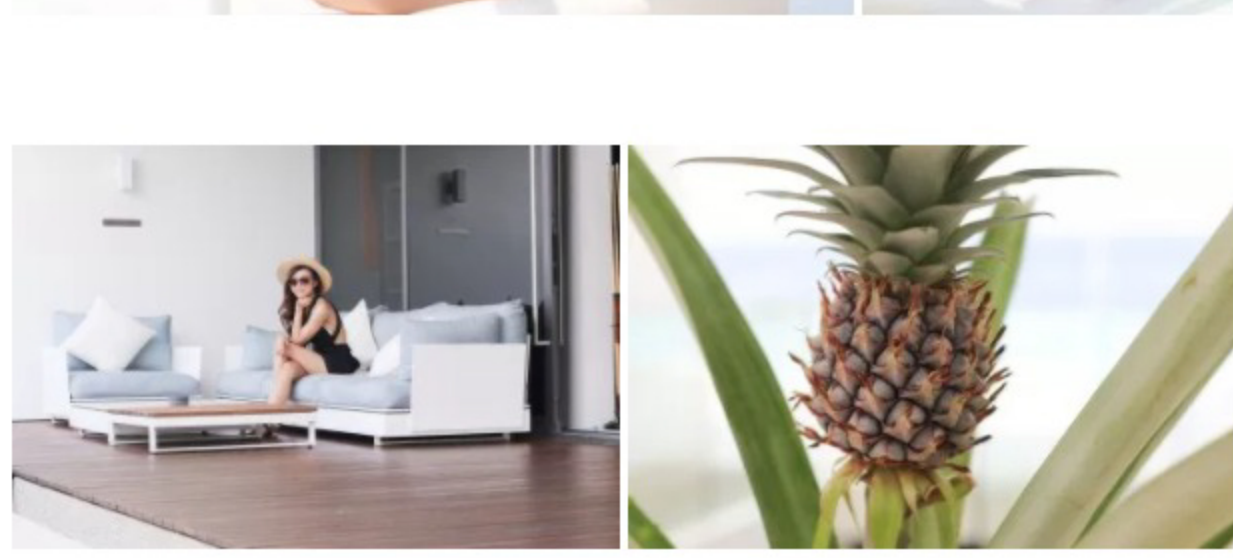

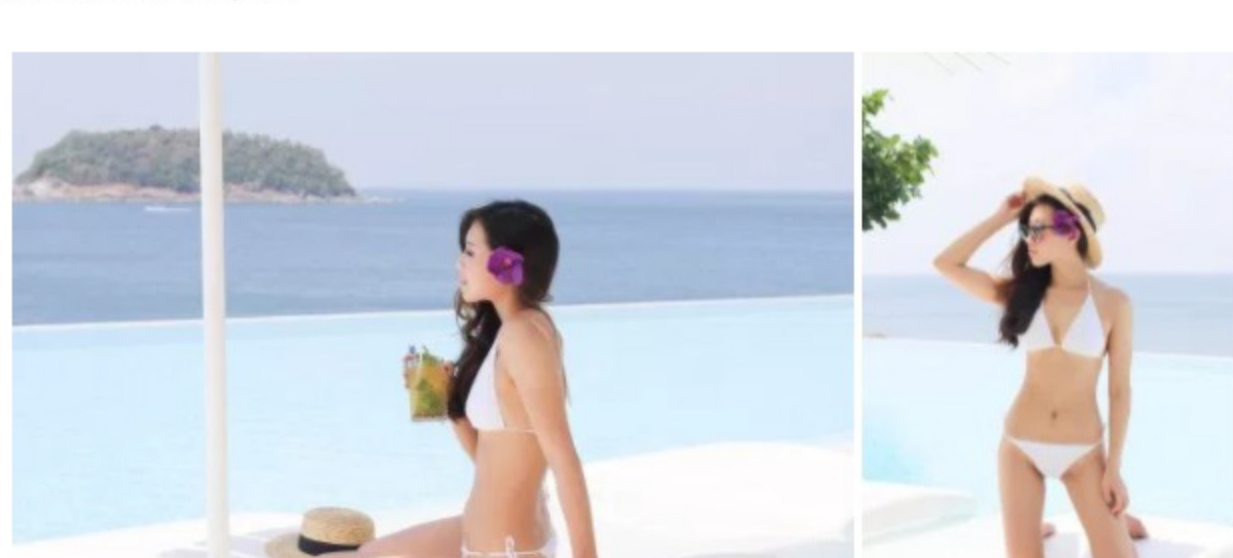

Kata Rocks is surrounded by natural landscapes and an endless open sea that inspires a constant state of relaxation. The staff are attentive and go above and beyond to make your stay as enjoyable as possible.

The resort has won an assortment of awards and accolades including Conde Nast Traveler's 2016 Readers' Choice Awards.

It's located about 35 minutes away from Phuket Town, and a little over an hour away from Phuket Airport.

We had a fantastic time during our time at Kata, and I can't recommend it enough. It was fairly quiet and not too busy when we went (late January), so perfect for a relaxing stay. I would suggest elsewhere, if you're looking for more of a party atmosphere or something closer to the downtown bars/clubs.
