Kata Rocks | Phuket, Thailand

Utilizing the natural topography of the site, including its impressive rock features, Kata Rocks is in harmony with its surroundings and an outstanding example of luxurious modern tropical design. The shops and restaurants of Kata town are just a short stroll away and there's a host of activities available locally. There are 34 beautifully appointed luxury 'Sky Villas' with one to four bedrooms. All villas feature large terraces with private pools ranging from 7 to 14 meters in length boasting uninterrupted ocean views and Phuket's most beautiful sunsets.

Nearby: Activities vary from temple tours and visiting the Big Buddha, to boat trips to the magical Phi Phi islands in Phang Na Bay or romantic sunset dinners 'On the Rocks' right on the Andaman oceanfront at Kata Rocks. Kata Beach and Kata Town are both less than five minutes away walking, and Nai Harn Beach, Chalong Temple, Big Buddha, Old Phuket town and Promthep Cape Viewpoint are all within a half hour of Kata Rocks.

Amenities: Rental stays include service from Kata Rocks colleagues and daily breakfast in the oceanfront restaurant. Some promotional offers include airport transfers, yacht trip, mooring etc.

Availability: Year-round

Rates: Daily rentals begin at $850.00
