Living the

They come in all shapes, sizes and styles – from timeless, classic sail yachts to futuristic megayachts, some resemble oversized floating palaces, others are nimble and more akin to racing cars; but whatever size, shape or style they are, they all are touched by luxury, and all are... super. After all, these are superyachts we're talking about, an elite category of boats accessible to a few and desired by many.

On the following pages, we present a selection of photographs of some of the most impressive superyachts that ascended to Phuket for the inaugural edition of the Kata Rocks Superyachts Rendezvous. This three-day long invitation-only superyacht gathering rocked the global yachting scene, and gave those who attended a unique opportunity to experience the superyacht lifestyle - both on water, aboard one of 15 magnificent vessels which graced the event, and on land, at Phuket's famed Kata Rocks, the world's first resort with design and ambiance inspired by a superyacht. Invited guests enjoyed a series of bespoke activities, glamorous parties and social events that effortlessly mixed networking and socializing in a relaxed and luxurious environment.

The 2017 Kata Rocks Superyacht Rendezvous will be held from 8 to 10 December 2017.

Peach Melba

Originally dreamed up in 1892 by chef Georges Auguste Escoffier as a tribute to Australian soprano Nellie Melba, this classic dessert is revived by chef Yoshiharu Kaji with depth of flavour, spectacular presentation and a dash of colour. Made with peach compote, almond mousse and vanilla ice cream, it comes decorated with a yellow light bulb chip and serving of raspberry sauce in a light bulb shaped container.

Barceloneta Seafood Rice

With her Barceloneta Seafood Rice, Chef Laia Pons of Phuket's Kata Rocks pays homage to the seafood scene of Barcelona. One look at this dish is enough to take your imagination for a tour of the city's fresh markets. All colours of the rainbow are present here with dominant tangerine so intense, that you can smell it!
