

Relax at luxury Thailand resort, Kata Rocks

This luxury beachfront resort features 34 private and luxurious pool villas and is home to the annual Kata Rocks Superyacht Rendezvous

November 2, 2017 by Vacations Staff

Flagship resort of privately-owned group Infinite Luxury, Kata Rocks in Phuket, Thailand is a design-driven luxury resort, featuring sleek, superyacht-inspired interiors. With unobstructed ocean views, it creates the illusion of being adrift on the calming waters of the Andaman Sea.

Located on the beach front at the southern end of beautiful Kata Beach, just 25-minutes' drive from Phuket Town, this five-star resort boasts 34 modern, private and spacious Sky Pool Villas, ranging from one- to four-bedroom options.

Each one of these light-filled, apartment-sized deluxe villas features its own private infinity pool, expansive living and dining areas, luxurious Italian-styled bedrooms and bathrooms, and modern, tech savvy features.

The resort offers world class facilities, including a state-of-the-art fitness suite offering private training and yoga, and unique dining experiences such as destination 'Dining on the Rocks', a wine cellar, in-villa private chef barbecue, and Thai culinary cooking classes.

The resort is also home to one of Asia's most renowned and awarded resort spas, The Infinite Luxury Spa, which boasts technologically-advanced and personalised treatments such as the energy pod and Chromo Therapy, combined with the ancient wisdom of Thai healing.

There's also a dedicated kids' club so guests can enjoy being pampered knowing their little ones are having their own fun in a caring and safe environment.

Thanks to its beautiful location, the resort is also plays host to the annual and exclusive Kata Rocks Superyacht Rendezvous, Asia's definitive super yacht race, distinguishing Kata Rocks as the most prestigious yachting destination in Thailand.

Since opening in 2014, Kata Rocks has won a string of international property, travel, design and hospitality awards and accolades.

katarocks.com

