KATA ROCKS BRINGS CINEMA TO THE TABLE FOR VALENTINE'S DAY

The Resort's Culinary Creatives Introduce a Playful Spin on Dinner and a Movie

(Hong Kong – 12 January, 2017) – Phuket's award-winning lifestyle oriented retreat, Kata Rocks, is playing cupid this Valentine's Day weekend with a series of romantic experiences, starting on Friday 10 February with a unique Culinary Cinema.

From screen, to seat, to palate; Culinary Cinema truly gives new meaning to dinner and a movie. The event brings movies to life with an innovative culinary and drink experience that engage all the senses. The Kata Rocks culinary team welcomes couples to settle in for an under-the-stars viewing of 'Sex and the City' alongside a specially created mystery menu which will offer a creative gastronomic interpretation capturing a prevailing emotion, environment, turn-of-phrase or overall feeling as it is being played out on the silver screen.

At the start of the evening guests will receive a mystery numbered tasting menu neatly boxed on a dining tray. As the film progresses, corresponding light box cues will signal when a menu item is to be opened. For example, during the Halloween screening of Scream in which a scene where characters were running through a pine forest, guest could enjoy a delicious Pine Smoked Popcorn delivering the 'crunch' of feet on the needle-laden forest floor. Culinary Cinema will take place from 6:30pm, 10 February, and is priced at THB 823++ per guest including a mystery numbered dégustation menu (tasting menu) custom-designed to enhance specific moments in the movie.

The chic resort will also offer a selection of one-of-a-kind dining and stay options for a fully indulgent romantic getaway. Guests can celebrate true love at The Ocean Front Restaurant, revel in an intimate 'Dining on The Rocks' session or pamper someone special with The Kata Rocks Valentine's Experience.
