

THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO THE BEST LUXURY HOTELS IN PHUKET

I Tagged Best luxury hotels, Luxe Asia, Luxe travel, Luxury resorts, Phuket, Resort reviews, Thailand

This article contains affiliate links. If you click and make a booking I will make a very small commission paid by the booking company at no additional cost to you. Thank you for stopping by!

Searching for hotels in Phuket on Agoda returns over 1,300 options. Needless to say, choosing the right hotel in Phuket for you is hard, even if you are looking for a luxury resort, there are over 60 high-end properties on the island and it is impossible to know which one is better or whether the prices that some charge are justified. Some will say that Phuket has so many 5 star hotels that a 6 star category is required. So here is a list of the best luxury hotels in Phuket that has been specially crafted thanks to my experience traveling to the island over a dozen times.

Kata Rocks – For a stylish minimalist retreat

Kata Rocks sunset

You may wonder if you died and woke up in Mediterranean haven. The white decor, glass doors, sharp lines and baby blue of the Andaman Sea all blend in to create stylish and cool pool villas with great views. You could be in Santorini or in Ibiza, and it does not matter because you came here for privacy and sleek surroundings. If you are a design fanatic or Philip Stark levels and like clean lines, this is the place for you. The resort is also open to visitors who purchase a day pass to their facilities and pools and the bar is a funky place to enjoy the sunset.

Rates start at $600 per night. Check availability and latest prices on Agoda or Hotels Combined.