KATA ROCKS' CELEBRATES PHUKET LUXURY LIFESTYLE WITH 3rd ANNIVERSARY CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH POOL PARTY

PHUKET, 31 October, 2017 - Kata Rocks is marking its third anniversary on Saturday 2 December with a Louis Roederer 'Champagne Brunch of The Year' Anniversary Pool Party that celebrates Phuket's luxury lifestyle.

The resort's DJ fuelled brunches are legendary for their stylish party atmosphere. This year's event is centred around an enticing combination of excellent entertainment, delicious food and Louis Roederer Champagne plus an exclusive fashion show next to Kata Rocks' gorgeous 35-metre infinity swimming pool.

According to Kata Rocks General Manager Scot Toon, the champagne brunch pool party is poised to be the luxury resorts' best anniversary celebration to date. "Jose Padilla, Ibiza's Godfather of Chill, headlined our last two anniversary parties, and we fully expect the third event will be bigger and better than ever."

Headlining the third anniversary party is Slum Disco Soundsystem, a collaborative brainchild of two Bangkok based DJs. Together under their Slum Disco moniker, the duo has taken Thailand by storm with appearances at some of Bangkok's top clubs with Beam and Sing Sing Theater being their most recent venues. At Kata Rocks' third anniversary expect them to spin a mix of funk, boogie, disco, and house with live trumpet performances complimenting their unique sound.

There will also be an exclusive fashion show by Phuket luxury bikini and swimwear producer, Kaanda, launching the brands' new 2018 collection. For the first time, Kaanda will showcase an exclusive Kata Rocks line called 'Santorini', featuring designs and colours inspired by Kata Rocks. Brunch guests can enjoy special offers at a 'Kaanda Pop up' boutique launching its impressive 2018 range.

Guests can expect the spectacular brunch buffet to include Boston lobster, Fine de Claire oysters, fresh prawns, Alaskan and Phuket crab, Eggs Benedict, Australian striploin, Lamb cutlets, marinated pork ribs, fresh vegetables and salad station, selection of imported cheese, dessert and ice cream stations plus much more.

Lauded as Phuket's 'Capital of Cool', Kata Rocks remains the number one venue for the island's glitterati who flock to the luxury resorts' exclusive happenings, parties and entertaining events. Kata Rocks celebrates its innovative approach to hospitality with an extensive line-up of much-anticipated 'See-and-Be-Seen' events, including its annual anniversary parties.

Kata Rocks' third anniversary will take place on Saturday 2 December from 12:30 to 3:30pm and will offer a free flow of cocktails, wine and Louis Roederer Champagne. Limited seating, for information and reservations please contact dining@katarocks.com or visit katarocks.com
